FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Department of Economic Development (DED) state the bill authorizes a new enterprise zone in Wright County. DED does not feel the bill has enough immediate impact on DED to warrant additional personnel or expenditures. At some point in the future, enough additional enterprise zone credits could be issued that would require an additional person. At that time, DED would request additional funding.

DED states the average cost for each enterprise zone in a rural area (not located in a Standard Metropolitan Area such as Kansas City, St. Louis, St. Joseph, Springfield, or Joplin) has been revised based on a more detailed review of information available. The cost of an enterprise zone in a rural area is now estimated to be $138,000 per year. The cost of an enterprise zone includes the costs of EZ tax credits, refunds, and income modifications (modification times tax rate to convert to dollar benefit) for a year. These figures are an average so some zones will cost more and some will cost less. It is not possible to predict anything more than the averages used as the cost until the zone has been created and mapped.

DED estimates a loss to General Revenue of $138,000 each year, starting in FY 2004.

In response to several similar proposals from this year, officials from the Department of Revenue (DOR) stated they do not anticipate a significant increase in the number of new credits filed. Therefore, DOR will not request additional FTE at this time. However, if DOR is incorrect in this assumption, they assumed they will need one Temporary Tax Season Employee for every 75,000 additional credits, one Tax Processing Tech I for every 30,000 additional errors generated and one Tax Processing Tech I for every 3,000 additional pieces of correspondence received regarding this credit. Any FTE needed will be requested during the normal budget process.

In response to similar legislation from this year, officials from the Department of Insurance (INS) stated the designation of an additional enterprise zone will increase the number of areas that receive enterprise zone tax credits. INS is unable to project how much in additional tax credits may be generated and what effect it will have on premium tax collections. Premium taxes are split between GR and the County Foreign Insurance fund which is later distributed to school districts. Fiscal impact will be an unknown loss of revenue to GR and the County Foreign Insurance fund.

In response to similar legislation from this year (SB 856), officials from Wright County stated this proposal would have no fiscal impact on their county. However, in response to a similar proposal from last year, Wright County officials stated that if they receive an Enterprise Zone designation, tax

incentives are provided to businesses based on the number of new jobs and amount of new investment created at the qualifying facility. There is a possible income exemption, partial tax credit refund, and property tax abatement on improvements to real property provided certain requirements are met. These incentives will only apply to new or expanding businesses. The property taxes currently paid by existing businesses and industry will not be affected. Thus property tax revenue will not be negatively impacted but will increase after the enterprise zone expires.

Oversight assumes the local taxing and governing authorities may grant an exemption (in whole or in part) of property taxes to new or expanding businesses after holding the required public hearings on the matter, therefore, has estimated the local impact as zero. The fiscal note does not reflect any indirect positive result that may occur because of the tax credits issued.

This proposal may impact Total State Revenues.

Note: This does not reflect the possibility that some of the tax credits could be utilized by insurance companies against insurance premium taxes. If this occurs, the loss in tax revenue would be split between the General Revenue Fund and the County Foreign Insurance Fund, which ultimately goes to local school districts.

FISCAL IMPACT - Small Business

This proposal could have a direct fiscal impact on those small businesses in newly created enterprise zone in Wright County.

DESCRIPTION

This proposal designates Wright County as an enterprise zone.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
